Forests Surrounding Lake Tahoe.

The California Forestry Commission, of which James V. Coleman is Chairman, is taking measures to protect the slopes of the mountains around Lake Tahoe from the lumbermen, who will, if permitted, soon strip off the trees. If this should be done the lake as a pleasure resort would be ruined, for its surrounding mountains would be rendered bare and desolate, and it is feared that the lake itself would be ruined. The Commission will endeavor to have Congress give to California and Nevada the land bordering the lake, that the timber may be preserved. The Central Pacific's land grant covers a little less than half of the coveted ground, but the Company has agreed to exchange it for other land equally good that the Government may give it, allowing that now held by it to be given to the public for the preservation of the natural beauties of the famous lake. Until the matter is decided the Railroad will sell no land in the vicinity of the lake.

The President's Message.

Nothing is known in regard to any recommendations of the President's message. In fact he is but just receiving the principal points of the reports of the heads of departments. As to the report that he will recommend a total abolition of internal taxes, it is not credited East. There is a general impression that he may go as far as he did in his message of last December, in which he advised the repeal of all this class of taxes, except those on distilled spirits, but this impression is not based upon any recent information about his purposes. Those who have made a study of the results of the reduction of the last Congress and the necessities of the Government for the immediate future, do not believe that the President will feel authorized to go beyond the recommendations of last year.

The Woolgrowers' Demand.

A meeting has been held at Pomeroy, Washington Territory, by the woolgrowers, for the purpose of organization, and an association was organized known as the Washington Territory Woolgrowers' Association. The following officers were elected: S. Ashly, President; J. Low and H. B. Day, Vice Presidents; Dan McGreevy, Treasurer; C. H. Seely, Secretary; W. Sullivan, Corresponding Secretary. A resolution was adopted demanding of Delegate Brents from the Territory, that he act in conjunction with Senators Slater and Doherty from Oregon, and M. O. George, the Representative, to use every effort possible to restore the tariff on wool to what it was before the last reduction. A committee was also appointed to draft a resolution to further memorialize Congress on this subject for the purpose of securing the end so much desired.

Official Returns of the Ohio Election.

Secretary Newman furnishes the following totals on Governor as the result of the election:

Foraker	347,061
Hoadly	359,593
Scumacher	8,361
Jenkins	2,785

Total	721,464
Hoadly's majority	1,386
Majority for Judicial amendment	33,424

The second amendment fell short of a majority 39,543. The regulation amendment received 98,050 votes.

During this season 26,000,000 bricks have been used in buildings in Salt Lake City. The total production of the yards aggregates about 34,000,000, leaving 8,000,000 to carry over to next Spring, which is four times larger than the amount carried over last Winter. The price of brick has ranged from $7 to $25 per 1,000, the latter for extra fine pressed.

The total receipts from the postal service for the fiscal year ended June 30th were $45,508,692; expenditures, $42,818,700; surplus, $2,689,992.

No Snow.—It is said that men are coming to the Comstock from a distance in the expectation of getting work when operations in the Gold Hill mines are fully resumed. It is useless for them to come. There are many more here already than can get work. A great number of men in Gold Hill—men who live there with their families—have been impatiently waiting for the past four or five months for the mills on the Carson river to start up in order to again go to work. These men are right on hand, and will fill all the places as fast as there are places to fill.—Euterpriser.

Army and Navy Changes.

WASHINGTON, October 30. Hon. J. C. New, after an extended interview with President Arthur, has reconsidered his determination to resign, and will retain his position as Assistant Secretary of the Treasury. Commodore A. C. Rhind was examined to-day, and promoted to Rear Admiral; he will be relieved to-morrow. Captain John Russell was promoted to the rank of Commodore, and ordered to the command of the navy yard at Mare Island, Cal. Commander Frank McNair was promoted to the rank of Captain, and ordered to duty, as Captain, at Mare Island navy yard. There will be no ceremony attending the transfer of the command of the army, from General Sherman to Lieutenant-General Sheridan Thursday morning. Two short orders will be issued—one by Sherman upon retiring the command of the army, and one by Sheridan upon assuming. Sherman will remain here several days looking after private interests, before leaving for St. Louis.

Mormonism in Idaho.

WASHINGTON, October 30. Delegate Singhsor of Idaho arrived here this morning and will not return home until after the adjournment of Congress. He reports that Idaho is rapidly increasing in wealth and population. The perplexing problem at present in Idaho is that of Mormonism; three counties of that territory being under their dominion and each year showed the evil increasing. The people have no idea of the power of this sect, and from what he saw he felt sure that if visited, they could muster 100,000 armed and fully equipped fanatics, eager to do battle for their faith. One remedy against the encroachment of the Mormons would be to disfranchise them, and if this failed harsh measures should be resorted to.

All to be Done Over.

CHICAGO, October 30. An important meeting of the general officers of the Pacific roads for the purpose of perfecting an arrangement of the California business. The arrangements recently made in San Francisco were found to be very faulty, and the whole work will have to be done over again, especially in regard to the contract system, the Northern Pacific refusing to join in enforcing this obnoxious system. A commissioner is also to be elected at this meeting in the place of Gault, who declined.

General Schofield in Chicago.

CHICAGO, October 30. General Schofield, who succeeds Sheridan in command of the division of Missouri, arrived from San Francisco this morning, accompanied by his family and two members of his personal staff, Col. Wm. M. Wherry and Lieut. C. R. Schofield. Schofield will publish an order, assuming formal command, to-morrow.

Hanton Coming.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 30. Edward Hanton, champion carman, has telegraphed his acceptance of an invitation to take part in the boat races to be held in Vallejo on Thanksgiving day. He asked for a guarantee of $600, which was immediately deposited. Hanton will row against Austin Stevenson of Vallejo, champion of the Pacific coast, three miles, for $500.

Special Contracts.

In response to the circular sent out by the Central Pacific Railroad Company, asking the merchants for a renewal of their special contracts, 1,100 affirmative replies have been received; there only remain 300 out of the total of 1,400 contractors who have not yet replied. No refusals have been received. Special contractors will, under the terms of the circular, profit by any reduction of rates made by the Northern Pacific.

The Democratic Factions.

The New York evening papers say that all efforts to close the breach between Tammany and the other two factions of the Democracy were abandoned to-day. From this day until the evening of the election, the policy will be, every man for himself in the broadest national sense. The Tammany caucus is being pushed forward with positive desperation.

The Commercial Advertiser, stalwart, but sympathetic with Tammany in the three-cornered fight, says of the County Democracy nomination for the State Senate, Tim Campbell in the Sixth, Mike Murphy in the Fifth, and John McManus in the Harlem district: McManus is the keeper of a low lager beer saloon in Harlem, an illiterate shagbriar, while Tim Campbell of the Hook, whom the respectable County Democracy took in preference to Senator Grady, is a professional politician, who has made politics his steady pursuit. Neither of these men can write a page of the English language correctly, not to mention their capacity to speak.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla acts directly and promptly, to purify and enrich the blood, improve the appetite, strengthen the nerves, and brace up the system. It is therefore in the truest sense an alternative medicine. Every invalid should give it a trial.

The Carson Tribune thinks it "about time for Governor Garrard to say turkey."

COREA.

The Country and its Rulers.

The presence of the Korean Embassy in this country gives renewed interest to their country and its rulers. A correspondent of the New York Herald writes as follows:

Seoul, the capital of Corea, is in the northwestern part of the peninsula and near the Satr, or Han, River, being about sixty miles from its mouth. The old maps put it directly on the river, but recent visits have proved that a town which is near it, and which is on the river, was probably mistaken for Seoul when foreigners were not permitted to approach near enough to determine its position. It is about an hour and a half's walking distance away from the river. The capital is a walled city, built at the foot of a range of hills, and the site was evidently selected as affording an easy and natural means for defence, the hills being in the rear and the river in front. It is said to contain about six hundred thousand inhabitants, but the walls enclose several times the area occupied by the houses, and after surrounding the town ascend the hills and form a barrier along the topmost ridges. The city is divided into four nearly equal parts by two immense streets which traverse it at right angles through the centre. Upon these two streets is carried on the principal business of the place.

The King is a young man of thirty-two, and it is only since the Summer of 1882 that he has been actually at the head of the State. Unlike most Eastern potentates he has but one wife, but at the same time he may have as many as he chooses. It is stated that there is no limit to the royal concubines, but as the Queen keeps a sharp lookout upon her royal master they lead a life of leisure and idleness. As all the court dresses, embroideries and many other fancy articles are said to be made in the palace, it is but fair to presume that these women find something with which to occupy themselves.

One of the most curious circumstances in regard to the King is that he has no name. He is simply known as "The King," and not until he dies is a name given him. He has the power to name the successor to the throne, and that successor may not be the next of blood. He is never seen by his people, and only leaves the palace precincts twice a year, and then for the purpose of performing religious ceremonies at a temple some half a mile away. In stature he is below the medium height, has a handsome, pleasant face, jet black hair, a light mustache and imperial of the same color, a white complexion, beautiful teeth, and, the most noticeable of all, dancing black eyes that seem to be overflowing with merriment. His state dress is of crimson satin, heavily embroidered with golden dragons, and the dress of the nobles at court is of a dark green with a square piece of embroidery on the breast and on the back, representing flying storks. He is always accompanied by two immense eunuchs, who are also nobles. Up to the time of the presentation of General Foote, the American Envoy, in May last, the King has seen but one other foreigner, Mr. Molendorf, Minister of Customs. It is the latter's intention, as the gradual introduction of new ideas will permit, to have the King appear in public among the people. He is already prepared for it, but it is questionable whether the people are quite ready for such an innovation upon their old established customs.

The Queen's household is entirely separated from that of the King, as owing to the customs of the country, she is surrounded by women and can only be seen by women. She has never been seen by a foreigner, but is described as being very beautiful. Before the arrival of the wife of the American Minister in Seoul the Queen had expressed an ardent desire to see her, but as yet she has not done so, although she sent eight of her ladies in waiting to make a formal call soon after Mrs. Foote reached there. So closely were they guarded and concealed that no one at the legation saw Mrs. Foote saw them. It is said that Korean ladies are averse to calling, owing to the fact that they do not wish their calls returned, but because in that case foreigners might see the low position they occupy in the social scale and the degraded condition of their lives. In a word, the Korean wife, whether of low or high degree, merely occupies the position of housekeeper and maid of all work, having no social position whatever.

Although the Korean women exhibit a great curiosity to see foreigners, and can be continually seen peering from behind doors and stockades, the soldiers keep an ever watchful eye on them and drive them back to a safe distance. On the ride to Seoul one is often reminded that bright eyes are watching him from behind the trees or bushes as he passes along the road, but who betide them if they are discovered by the soldiers, for they have no hesitation in pursuing them with the bamboo

Burglars at Work.

Monday morning about 2 o'clock, at San Leandro, burglars broke into Knowles & Bainbridge's tinware manufactory, blew open the safe and secured about $150 in coin besides a number of notes, receipts and bills belonging to the firm. A box containing several hundred dollars was overlooked. The burglars gained admission through a back window of the shop, and got into the office by prying off the fastenings of a door. The tools were taken from Powers' blacksmith shop. There is no clew to the perpetrators.

The Colored Voters and the Offices.

[Chicago Tribune.]

In the negro offseeking convention, held in Springfield a day or two ago, one of the whereas reads: Whereas, This State, with 20,000 colored voters, has never had a single colored Delegate to the Republican National Convention. According to the last census there were in the whole State of Illinois only 45,368 blacks—men, women and children—which would indicate about 9,000 voters instead of 20,000 as claimed. The white voters of the State exceed 600,000. There is only one negro in Illinois to every sixty-five whites. In view of these proportional numbers the following resolution passed by the convention seems quite modest:

Resolved, That we will not vote for any man for office in the future who has not shown a disposition while in office to not honorably and fairly toward colored applicants for political preferment.

Just how many of the handful of negro voters in this State endorse this threat of the offseeking soreheads we do not know, but it is doubtful if the soreheads are authorized to speak for any one except themselves. If any offseeking negroes think they can do better in the Democratic party than in the Republican, they should "take their pigs to that market." The Republicans are not anxious to retain in their ranks discontented, grumbling persons, who are threatening to vote the old pro-slavery Democratic ticket unless they get office. If these fellows, whom the Republicans changed from slave chancellors of the Bourbons into free citizens of the Republic, believe that the Democratic party will turn out its Irish officeholders to give place to them, let them try the experiment and see how it pans out. Last Spring, between 500 and 600 negroes in the First and Second Wards voted for Carter Harrison and the Democratic ticket. How many offices have they got in reward for that vote? Four to five hundred negroes voted for Harrison at each of his previous elections. How many offices have the Democracy of Chicago given them for thus going back on the party which liberated them from bondage and placed the negro of suffrage in their hands? But, as before stated, if they think the Irish Democrats will give them more offices than the American Republicans, let them join their ancient enemies and test the soundness of their belief.

IN AND OUT OF TOWN.

What is Being Said and Done in a Small Way.

Uncle Jake McKissick left for home yesterday.

Sheriff Emmitt came in from the north last evening.

Col. Ellis was a passenger for San Francisco yesterday.

George Winters came down from Washoe last evening.

Dan Wheeler returned from the northern country last evening.

Hank Rhodes was yesterday provided quarters in the County Hospital.

E. V. Spencer went to Sacramento yesterday morning on professional business.

Mrs. P. R. James, of Susanville, was a passenger for the west yesterday morning.

W. S. Bonfield and Charles Sloan, of Winnemucca, were on the streets yesterday.

Dion Boucicault, with his dramatic troupe, were passengers for the East yesterday morning.

A number of teams and several droves of hogs are on their way hither from Susanville.

C. S. Martin has a notice in the 50-cent column interesting to all who are indebted to Charles Zeigler for meat.

Bob Lamb is over from Emigrant Gap visiting his family. He will return this morning, to be gone all winter.

Dave Harlan, who has been out north on a hunt for the past few days returned last evening loaded with rabbits, sagohens etc.

Mr. Cocherell, of Surprise Valley, a former resident of this place, was in town yesterday for the first time in four years. He was astonished at the improvements in the place since he left.

Two emigrant wagons drove into town yesterday in regular Arkansas style, each containing a family of from 8 to 12 children. They are from Boise City, Idaho, and are en route to southern California.

The Carson Appeal starts the report that a lady, 72 years of age, residing in Virginia City, has just been notified of the fact that she is the heiress to $2,000,000 in Ireland. The report probably contains more sensation than truth.

The California Fig Syrup Company yesterday elected a new Board of Trustees, consisting of T. E. Haydon, H. J. Thyes, J. P. Condon, R. E. Queen and J. J. Quinn. George Alt, one of the ousted Trustees, attached the company for $2,500 before the new Trustees had been in office an hour.

Carson Races.

The first race on the programme at Carson to-day will be a half mile and repeat running race for a purse of $250, five horses to start.

The second race will be a trot for a purse of $250 between Fred B. Wm. Tell and Alonzo Hayward. Horses to start promptly at one o'clock.

Going East.

Mr. Duckworth, of Surprise Valley, who lost his wife a short time ago, came in yesterday with his two children, accompanied by his brother, and all embarked on an emigrant train last evening for Arkansas.

Convicted.

Frank Frey, indicted for robbing the Gerald Postoffice, was found guilty yesterday morning in the U. S. District Court at Carson. Sentence will be passed on the defendant next Saturday.

The very best way to avoid sickness, save money, be genteel and comfortable, is to buy your clothing of Abrahams Brothers at the White House.

Be More Careful.

A boy came within an ace of being caught by a moving car in the railroad yard yesterday morning. He was crossing from the Cookes corner, and was rushing along heedless of the approaching train, and discovered the danger just in time to save himself from certain death. One step further would have landed him under the car. The car was moving slowly and the brakeman was at the further end and did not notice the boy. The railroad employees seem to take every precaution possible to avoid accidents, but they are powerless to govern the action of people who cross the track. Those who are compelled to cross the track frequently, both old and young, seem to become heedless of all danger and will rush across in front of a moving car or train, climb over the drawheads or under the cars when danger signals are sounding on every side and the engine is steamed up ready to move out. Unless the practice is stopped, and people are more careful, some one will get killed one of these days.

Billy Dale's Snake Story.

The Virginia Chronicle, of Monday evening, tells thus. Yesterday morning Deputy Sheriff Billy Dale took an insane man to the Reno Insane Asylum. On his return last night William entertained his friends with many marvelous stories of the wonderful things he had seen at the asylum. Among other extraordinary scenes witnessed, one insane patient caught a garter snake in the pen-yard of the asylum and ate it alive, to the great delight of the Dep. Sher., who is quite an epicure himself, and always on the lookout for a new dish. He wants Billy Eckhoff to set out a garter-snake lunch now.

A Crazy Stranger.

From the Silver State it is learned that Henry B. Mans, the insane man who was lodged in the Asylum last Monday, is a stranger in this land. He was taken off the train at Winnemucca, and on his person was found a first-class ticket from San Francisco to St. Louis, a gold watch and $14 in money. Papers found on his person showed that he was a former resident of Indianapolis, Indiana, and the inventor of a spark arrester, for locomotives. He is wild on the subject of invention.

Stage Robbers Quickly Disposed of.

Marshall and Martin, the robbers of the Sierra Valley stage, who were arrested here and taken to Downieville in the early part of last week waived time when they were brought into Court last Saturday, and pleaded guilty, whereupon the Court sentenced Marshall to fifteen years in State Prison and Martin to five years. Marshall has been engaged in a number of stage robberies, but it was Martin's first offence.

Justice Court.

In Justice Court yesterday F. C. Hoff was convicted and given 30 days in the county jail for petit larceny, and Ah Dock was sent up for 20 days for a similar offense.

Charles Spreut, for opium smoking, was given the alternative to pay a fine of $25 or remain 13 days in the county jail. He accepted the latter.

A Verdi Frenchman became very salubrious and noisy on the street and paid a fine of $10.

The Chinaman who took a shot at a fellow countryman a few days ago, plead guilty to assault and battery, and paid a fine of $35. The Celestial who was shot at, and who caused the arrest, paid half the fine.

Starling.

An industrious statistician by the name of Mulhall, has gone through an unabridged edition of the last census report from which he obtains the startling fact that the American people squander annually $8,000,000,000 for alcoholic drinks, and that the value of all the property in the United States is $50,000,000,000. If these figures are correct it is plain to be seen that it will only take the American people about 62 years to drink up the whole business.

NEW PROCESS FLOUR.

Good News for the Nevada Wheat Growers.

F. C. Fogus has demonstrated beyond the possibility of a doubt that Nevada wheat makes a better quality of flour than California can produce. His Nevada State Mills under the new patent roller process, is proving a success. He has secured the service of J. P. Bunes, one of the best millers on the coast, and who has had charge of Bidwell's mill at Chico for several years. They are turning out 25 barrels per day, and every barrel is equal to any brand ever brought to this State. The celebrated Sacramento Pioneer flour is no better, if indeed it is so good as that made at Fogus' mill. The flour is all made from Nevada grown wheat, and while it is equal to any brand and far superior to many, it is sold at $1 per barrel cheaper than the Pioneer. The asylum and prison are using it. Warden Bell writes as follows:

S. C. Fogus Esq., Reno, Nevada:—Dear Sir:—The sample sack of flour sent me has been thoroughly tested, and I am pleased to say, is very fine—in fact equal to any flour I have ever seen. Your bakers' extra, of which we have been using two tons a month for the last three months, is fully equal to the Pioneer brand of California; in fact if anything our bakers prefer it to California flour. Allow me to congratulate you on the success of your mill.

Yours truly,
FRANK BELL, Warden.

Mr. Fogus is proving himself a public benefactor, so to speak, for the farmers always find a ready sale for their wheat at good prices, and consumers find the flour the wheat produces all they can ask for, while the merchants can get it in any quantity desired.

A Missing Chinaman.

About a week ago a Chinaman at work for Bonham in the capacity of a cook, at his ranch near Buffalo Salt Marsh, disappeared very suddenly and uncereemoniously and has not since been heard from. He got up as usual and started breakfast, then took off his slippers and set them in the middle of the room, buckled on his six-shooter, and struck out, leaving his blankets, clothing, and a lot of Chinese trinkets. Bonham thinks the fellow went off to some secluded spot and committed suicide.

Failed to Respond.

The N. & O. engine failed to perform duty yesterday morning, and as a consequence the train did not leave as usual, and the mail and passengers were taken to Onida in carriages. The trouble will be remedied so that the train will go out on time this morning.

Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using Dr. Pierce's "Pleasant Purgative Pellets." They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For sick headache, constipation, impure blood, dizziness, sour eruptions from the stomach, bad taste in mouth, bilious attacks, pain in region of kidney, internal fever, bloated feeling about stomach, rush of blood to head, take Dr. Pierce's "pellets." A Card.

William Pinniger tenders his best thanks to his numerous friends, and the public generally, for the very liberal support accorded him in the past, and he begs to inform them that he has again effected a co-partnership with R. E. Queen, at the old stand, and respectfully invites a continuance of their patronage. The new firm have added largely to their stock of drugs, chemicals, patent medicines, wines and liquors for medicinal purposes; toilet and fancy articles, etc. In the dispensing department they make a specialty of physicians' prescriptions and family receipts, bringing to their already large experience the latest achievements in scientific pharmacy, and are prompt in filling all orders intrusted to them.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Couldn't Afford It.

Made Honest by Business Principles a Druggist Tells the Square Truth.

"Now, my friend, let's be perfectly frank and candid about this little matter," the druggist said, placing his elbows on his plated showcase and looking his customer fairly in the eye. You have a lame back and want a plaster to put on it. You don't know me, and, judging of human nature as it runs in business, you are afraid I'll humbug you in some way. You may think it an odd statement, but I can't afford to cheat you. Even if I did I haven't the means.

"That's curious. (Oh, my back! I'll take a chair, I guess.) Don't you keep plaster?"
"Oh, yes, one or two kinds. Once I had shelves full of them—every sort that were ever invented to gull the ignorant and make money for imitators. But I sifted 'em out one by one and now sell BENSON'S CAPSINE POROUS PLASTER principally. They always give satisfaction, and in the end it pays me to sell them in preference to all others."
"Haven't you Allcock's?"
"Yes, but my customers and myself prefer Benson's Capsine—which are quick as electricity, safe as Government bonds and sure as the law of gravitation. The doctors order them, and what is more to the point, I never have heard a complaint from any one who has used them. You can go elsewhere—if your back will bear you out in the operation—and get another and a cheaper plaster, but—"
"Don't talk to me about the money," broke in the comfort-seeking stranger, with some heat. "What's ten or fifteen cents to getting rid of this confounded—oh, Lord!—this pain and lameness? Let me have one of Benson's Capsine. That's the real article, is it? With the word CAPSINE cut in the body of the plaster."
"You'll be around in a week, straight and strong," added the diplomatic druggist, throwing the money in his cash drawer.
